This valuable publication originated with Robert Dodsley at the suggestion of Edmund Burke, who for some years was the principal contributor. It contains many most powerful and valuable records of historical and political events during the last one hundred years. It is an invaluable set of books for a Public Library, comprising, as it does, in a concise style, well adapted for reference, a detailed view of the Politics, Literature, Biography, Parliamentary History, Commerce, Statistics, etc., etc., of the past century. All the State Papers of any interest are printed at length, the whole thus forming a body of data for the future historian, unparalleled either in extent or importance.
